

LANCASTER, PA. James Street Looking West toward the College

Down went "McGinty" to the bottom of the sea.
John C. Raeser

"LANCASTER, Pa."

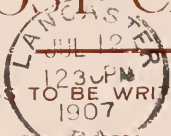

"Resist Plaster No. 5612."

Raphael Tuck & Sons "RAPHO TYPE" ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN

POST CARD.

12<sup>50</sup>

THE ADDRESS TO BE WRITTEN ON THIS SIDE

JAMES STREET LOOKING WEST TOWARD THE COLLEGE.
At this point one sees to the right, elevated and surrounded by magnificent grounds, the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church, and to the left, numerous "Frat." houses, professors' residences, and, on the campus, the De Peyster statue and library, the Diagoethian and Goethian Society Halls, the gymnasium, science building, etc.

30

Miss Margaret Holden,
Ivy Run,
Franklin Co. Pa

Printed in Holland